

New Contemporary Women Initiated

GFWC Contemporary Women of North County (CWONC) initiated two new members at their February meeting. Pictured, from left, are: 2008 club president, Linda Bridges; new members Joan Ward and Marena Mills; and outgoing president, Laura Collins; who is club treasurer for 2008.

CWONC is a non-profit organization that supports community service efforts in the North County area, focusing on issues involving women and children.

Their support is varied and embraces projects involving the arts, conservation, home life, education, public affairs, international affairs and fund-raisers.

CWONC meets the second Monday of every month at the Wood House in San Marcos. For more information, visit the website, www.cwonc.org.

Photo courtesy of Kaye Martin